Immanuel Feniscowles

Welcome

Immanuel is a church at the heart of our local community here in Feniscowles and Pleasington. We believe that God has called us to reflect the grace, beauty, love and peace of Jesus Christ to one another and to our neighbours here in Feniscowles, Pleasington, Livesey and Cherry Tree. God has blessed us with a beautiful and historic church building and with a heritage of prayer and Christian worship. We want to share all that God has given us, with those who want to experience more of God's grace and blessing in their lives.

Welcome to Our Services

Everyone is very welcome at Immanuel. We have a range of Services on different days and of different styles, come along to experience more.

Sundays

9:15am - Holy Communion (traditional language)

A quiet said service using the traditional language Church of England Prayer Book, the Book of Common Prayer. There are no hymns and the service lasts about 35 mins. The service includes a short talk by the vicar to help to think about either the Bible reading for the day or current themes or events. A contemplative, quiet start to the day.

10:30am - Parish Eucharist

The main service of the week which includes hymns and a full address by the vicar on either the Bible readings or a current event or theme. There are prayers led by members of the congregation and tea and coffee served after the service. The focus of the service is on receiving Holy Communion along with the words of the Bible readings, vicar's address, prayers and hymns.

Sunday School meets in the Church Hall at the same time as this service and joins the congregation for communion with the children showing the congregation what they have been doing in Sunday School at the end of the Service.

Every third Sunday of the month we don't have Holy Communion but instead are joined by all our Uniformed Organisations and lots of parents with young children for a child friendly family and Parade Service. In this Service children from the Uniformed Organisations receive the badges they achieved in the previous month.

Thursdays

7:30pm - Family Communion

An informal child friendly Communion Service with modern language and an all age address based around a modern language Bible story. The Service lasts about half an hour and children are chosen to take the collection and bring the bread and wine to the altar. Children are often also chosen to help in the all age address too!

Messy Church

Every Fourth Tuesday of the Month at St Francis School

3:30pm – 5pm. A Fresh Expression of Church, this is a fun filled time of play based worship for children and their parents

LOTS OF OTHER SEASONAL AND OCCASIONAL SERVICES ARE HELD THROUGH THE YEAR - KEEP AN EYE OPEN FOR THEM BY LOOKING AT THE WEBSITE, THE PARISH MAGAZINE OR, BETTER STILL, COME ALONG TO ONE OF OUR REGULAR SERVICES TO FIND OUT MORE!

Dear Friends

Maybe because they are traditionally times of family gatherings, Christian festivals, especially Easter and Christmas, sometimes draw up and carry with them some of our deepest family memories. If we are going to remember and miss someone we have loved and lost, we will do it now. As we contemplate the Bible readings of the women bearing spices and wishing they could at least anoint the one they miss, we might also think about the many people who will visit graves and memorial plaques over the easter weekend, 'Renewing flowers, tending the bare earth'. All those 'beautiful useless gestures', all that 'love poured out in silence' is, I believe, somehow gathered together in these three days and sown deep in the ground of God's love, ready for the day when he will make all things new again.

"The love that's poured in silence at old graves
Renewing flowers, tending the bare earth,
Is never lost. In him all love is found
And sown with him, a seed in the rich ground."
To quote a wonderful poem

It's the same motif I think which moves us to decorate the inside of Churches with the signs of renewed life in springtime which flowers represent, the Church being transformed from the bare austerity of plainness in Lent to a wonderfully renewed vibrancy celebrated at easter.

As I was thinking about this transformation, I was reminded of a novel written by the Anglican Author, Susan Hill called 'In the Springtime of Year'. It was written 40 years ago when she was mourning the death of her talented fiancé David Lepine. David was the first organist of the newly built Coventry Cathedral and he died suddenly, of a coronary heart attack, at the age of 43. Susan Hill wrote this novel to express her pain, and it is a moving and intimate tale of the process of grieving. Ruth, the central character mourns the sudden death of her husband Ben who was killed by a falling tree in a freak accident. A year after his death she has started to come to terms with her loss. She goes with Jo, Ben's younger brother, to the village churchyard on Easter morning. Susan Hill writes:

'They had reached the Lych gate. Jo was pointing. She looked... The churchyard was brilliant as a garden with the patterned flowers, almost every grave was decked out in growing white and blue, pink and butter-yellow, and underneath it all, the watery moss and the vivid grass; it was as though all the people had indeed truly risen and were dancing in the sunshine, there was nothing but rejoicing and release. She walked slowly across the turf to the side of the church and stood, looking towards Ben's grave. It was like a sunburst. She did not need, or want, to go nearer. Jo touched her arm. 'You see,' he said, his voice full of wonder, 'it did happen. It does. It's true.'

'Did you ever doubt it?'

'Once,' he said carefully, 'one time.'

Susan Hill offers another powerful image of how we can experience this resurrection joy, and it is an image that tells us that such joy is always linked to faith. Resurrection can be doubted, seen only as an imagined happy ending to the pain of grief. Real life, the life of science and economics and hard fact is not like that. People are born, people die, some are happy and successful, for some life is a series of repeated tragedies.

Think of how the liberating power of resurrection is pictured in the Easter stories: Matthew speaks of an earthquake, of an angel descending from heaven and rolling back the stone from the tomb and sitting on it. The guards, the representatives of the governing forces of oppression and violence and death shook, and their power was no more. We are asked through these dramatic pictures to imagine that reality has changed. The order of the world is shaken, heaven and earth are linked, angels come with the dawning of a new day.

But the centre of the story is not the dramatic effects that signal the action of God but rather the fear and joy of Mary Magdalene and the other Mary as they run to tell the disciples what they have seen. The centre is in their sudden meeting with Jesus; Jesus who stands in the path, and greets them. 'And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshipped him'.

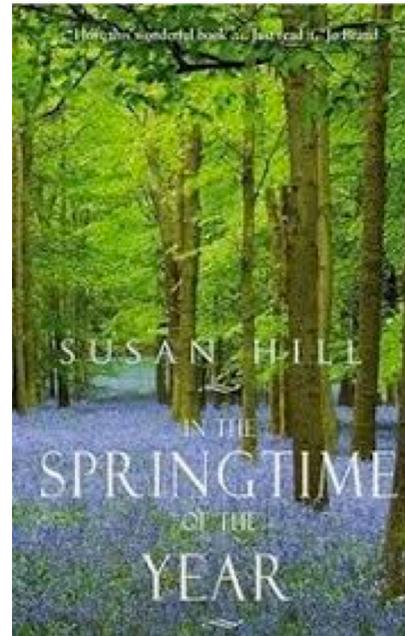

Perhaps, and it is has to be a perhaps, because to see it requires trust and perception, the world has been changed. Faith, trust, will always be accompanied by its darker sister doubt, but it needs sister doubt so that it loses its naivete and doesn't become arrogant, triumphalist or intolerant of other voices.

The centre of the easter story is joy, but it isn't I think the kind of unqualified exclusive inward looking joy which we might feel if we say received a present of something we quite liked or if our favourite football team won a trophy. The centre of the easter joy is a joy which is born out of the experience of pain, loss and sorrow and has somehow found a way through; which acknowledges that joy is not all that there is to life, but that we can find joy in life anyway

"He blesses every love that weeps and grieves
And makes our grief the pangs of a new birth."

Your friend and vicar

David

Immanuel Church is your parish church. It is primarily a place of worship but it is also a place where you can go when you need a bit of peace and quiet or simply to marvel at the skills of the craftsmen of yesteryear.

Congratulations to number 43 who won the April £50 draw

Thank you to everyone who regularly brings donations of food to support Blackburn Foodbank. The Foodbank has been in touch to say they are desperately short of tinned tomatoes and tinned meat. Donations may be left in the box at the back of Church.

Church of England Children's Society.

It is time for the Children's Society boxes to be emptied. Will you please leave them at the back of the Church. I will collect them from there and return them to Church when the money has been counted. If you want me to collect your box please ring me on 01254 201759.

Thank you.

Kathleen Hargreaves, Children's Society Rep.

Christain Aid Week

12th – 18th May 2019

We are looking for volunteers to take and collect Christian Aid Envelopes around the parish during Christian Aid Week
Also an Immanuel Christian Aid Rep' is needed
if you would like to volunteer for either of these please speak to David

Thy Kingdom Come - May 30th - June 9th 2019

This year we are once again to have Immanuel open for prayer during the daytime for parishioners and visitors alike. If you would be prepared to give two hours on any day between May 30th and June 9th, with at least one other person, please volunteer on the list at the back of Church or contact David – if you could provide basic refreshments that would be even better – the two hours timing would be up to you, we just want the church to be open. For more information visit the Thy Kingdom Come website

New Electoral Roll

This year we need to make a new Electoral Roll. If you regularly attend Immanuel please fill in a form this morning and post it in the 'ballot box' at the back of Church (don't worry, it's not a vote about Brexit!!)

It is important that we have an up to date list of those regularly coming to Church so, if you haven't already done so, please do fill in a form before leaving Church the next time you come

Thank You

Free Will Offering Envelopes

New envelopes for the next financial year are available for collection at the back of the Church. The number of envelopes has been reduced, so anyone who had a number over 30 will find that they have a new number.

It is important that you complete the attached slip of paper, and return it to either a warden or sidesperson.

Thank You

Easter Flowers

Thank you very much to all the Ladies who met on Easter Saturday to arrange our Easter flowers. Once again, a happy group of six came together, keen to decorate Immanuel.

We enjoyed our morning, decorating church with beautiful Lilies, Carnations and Spray Chrysanthemums, together with delicate Ivy and candle arrangements. These were created by Jan Hartley, Sheila Haworth, Pat Hindle, Josie Ivison, Olive Oddie, Jean Winterburn and the writer.

Many thanks to Tom Gaskell, Josie Ivison and David our Vicar for allowing us to cut foliage from their gardens; the two varieties of Laurel blended perfectly with the beautiful flowers.

Lastly, thank you very much to everyone who gave donations for the Easter flowers, which are in memory of their loved ones, also for all the appreciative comments.

Kathryn Marsden
Flower Secretary

Luke 24:17 'He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast'

And do you ask what I am speaking of

Although you know the whole tale of my heart;

Its longing and its loss, its hopeless love?

You walk beside me now and take my part

As though a stranger, one who doesn't know

The pit of disappointment, the despair

The jolts and shudders of my letting go,

My aching for the one who isn't there.

And yet you know my darkness from within,

My cry of dereliction is your own,

You bore the isolation of my sin

Alone, that I need never be alone.

Now you reveal the meaning of my story

That I, who burn with shame, might blaze with glory.

Three Easy Ways to help and support your church

- 1) Buy a church magazine every month - the magazine contains details of all services and events taking place in our church plus our vicar's letter to the parish and many interesting articles. If you wish you can contribute to the magazine by either e-mailing your article to the vicar or giving a paper copy to the warden on duty who will ensure that it is given to the editor.
- 2) The 100 Club - the monthly draw with a prize of £50. For £12 per year there is a monthly prize of £50 for one lucky number. This should be an easy way of providing revenue for the church. 100 numbers at £12.00 per year, £600 given back in prize money and £600 for church funds. To achieve this we need to have 100 numbers taken and in the past few years this has not been the case. We are coming up to the year end so please think about taking part in this draw.
- 3) Sponsorship of the weekly news sheet - the cost of sponsoring this news sheet is still only £5 which goes towards the printing costs. You can sponsor the sheet for any reason, in memory of a loved one, to celebrate a special birthday or occasion or just because you feel like it. If you would like to sponsor the sheet please contact Sheila Haworth in church or tel: 01254 722602
